How to get your match tickets

As part of The Rugby March, you get a free ticket to watch the live Bristol Bears v Exeter Chiefs game after the walk. To get your ticket, you'll need to book your seat via the Bristol Bears website and receive your ticket in advance before the match day. This way, you can choose where you sit within our designated stand, as well as who you're sat with.

You will have received a unique coupon code. When you enter this into the Bristol Bears website, it will make your ticket free of charge. If you're taking part with others, you can select seats for all your team and use everyone's discount code at the same time!
